Section 7.2 Financial Accountability.

Financial statements of the Co-op shall be audited at least once in every 3 fiscal years by an independent public accountant selected by the BOD. However, if the cost of an audit could endanger Co-op financial viability, the timing of such an audit can be delayed up to 4 years from the date of completion of the previous audit. In addition to financial professionals, other external professionals may be engaged to conduct a management review and report concerning management performance, adequacy of operating controls, and such other matters as determined by the BOD.

Section 7.3 Reserve Equity Fund.

The Co-op shall maintain a Reserve Equity Fund, with the goal that its accumulated balance shall be the equivalent of not less than 50% of the Co-op's total paid-up capital stock. Such fund may be borrowed from and repaid as needed for Co-op investments or development, as determined by the BOD.

Article VIII: Capital Stock

Section 8.1 Issuance.

The Co-op shall issue its common stock to evidence capital funds provided by owners. Common shares may be issued only to persons eligible for and admitted to ownership in the Co-op. 8.2.2 The Co-op need not provide certificates to evidence issuance of stock.

8.2.3 Shares may not be transferred except to another person eligible for ownership, and with the express prior approval of the BOD. Any attempted transfer contrary to this section shall be wholly void and shall confer no rights on the intended transferee.

Section 8.3 Redemption.

8.3.3 Shares shall be redeemable at the lesser of their carrying value on the books of the Co-op or their net tangible book value, less a reasonable processing fee, if any, as determined by the BOD.

Section 8.4 Lien and Offset.

The Co-op shall have a first lien on shares to the extent of amounts due and payable to the Co-op by owners. The Co-op may, at any time after such amounts remain due and payable for 30 or more days, offset such amounts against owners' accumulated payments for share equity. Such offset may not be executed by owners or by anyone acting in the right of owners. The Co-op is authorized to utilize legal process to enforce liens against owners.

Article IX: Patronage Rebate

Section 9.1 Allocations to Owners.

The Co-op will operate on a nonprofit basis with regard to its transactions with owners, as specified in this Article.

9.1.1 Adjusted net income from operations shall be allocated for rebate to each owner in the proportion that their patronage bears to the total of all owner patronage during the fiscal year. Patronage shall be understood to mean goods and services purchased from the Co-op, and shall be measured in terms of its dollar amount.

9.1.2 Owners may, by action at a meeting of owners, waive or defer, in whole or in part, any patronage rebates that would otherwise be distributable, if, for example, payment of such rebates may be regarded as jeopardizing the financial health of the Co-op.

9.1.3 The Co-op may, in addition to or alternatively to using Patronage Rebates, use discounts on purchases as a method for operating on a nonprofit basis with regard to its transactions with owners.

Section 9.2 Adjusted Net Income Allocated for Patronage Rebates.

In determining the total allocations for patronage rebate, the Co-op shall treat all operations as a single allocable unit, except to the extent that it shall engage in any new and distinct line of business. In determining total amounts distributable to owners (referred to below as "Total Allocation Amount"), the net income of the Co-op shall first be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Such net income shall, to the extent allowable under federal tax law, then be reduced by:

- (i) the portion of such net income not attributable to business done with owners;
- (ii) amounts not allowable as allocable net income under federal tax law;
- (iii) a portion of the remainder designated for the Reserve Equity Fund, as defined in Section 7.3, at such times as the fund balance is less than its goal amount; and
- (iv) such other reasonable reserves for necessary operational purposes, as determined by the BOD.

Section 9.3 Patronage Records.

The Co-op will provide its own electronic or other facilities to account for patronage transactions. Any owner also has the right to retain, tabulate, and remit receipts for all or selected purchases from the Co-op, in order to document the total amount of their patronage.

Section 9.4 Distribution And Notice.

9.4.1 Patronage rebates shall be evidenced by written or electronically distributed notices of allocation delivered to recipient owners within 8 months and 15 days following the close of the fiscal year. Each written notice shall state the dollar amount allocated to the owner on the books of the Co-op, constituting a patronage dividend within the meaning of federal tax laws.

9.4.2 Concurrent with issuance of said notice, payment of a percentage of each owner's Total Allocation Amount shall be made available to the owner through a form of payment chosen by the owner from 3 options:

- a. in the form of a credit toward the price of products subsequently purchased by the owner at the Co-op,
- b. in the form of a check payable to the owner, or
- c. in the form of a donation made back to the Co-op by the owner.

9.4.3 In the event of the death of any owner entitled to receive such a payment, the Co-op shall issue or re-issue the payment to that owner's heirs or assigns, or to such other recipient as is specified by applicable state law.

Section 9.5 Consent Of Owners.

9.5.1 By obtaining or retaining ownership in the Co-op, each owner thereby consents to take into account, in the manner and to the extent required by Section 1385 of the Internal Revenue Code, the stated dollar amount of any written notice of allocation in the taxable year in which such notice is received.

9.5.2 As of the date of approval of these bylaws, all patronage rebates represent non-taxable income to individual owners, based upon the following:

- a. Internal Revenue Code Section 1385(b)(2) specifies that any patronage rebate attributed to the recipient's patronage purchases of personal, living or family items, shall be excluded from the recipient's gross taxable income; and
- b. Internal Revenue Code Section 6044(c) and Internal Revenue Regulations Section 1.6044-4(a)(2) specify that the Co-op is exempt from issuing Forms 1099-PATR to owners who are allocated patronage rebates, based upon 85% or more of the Co-op's gross receipts being attributed to retail sales of goods that are generally for personal, living, or family use.

Section 9.6 Retained Amounts.

9.6.1 Patronage rebates not currently distributed by payment shall be credited or charged to revolving capital accounts in the names of recipient owners. Retained patronage rebates shall accrue no dividend or interest, and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the express consent of the Co-op.

9.6.2 The Co-op shall have a first lien on retained patronage rebates for amounts otherwise due and payable to the Co-op by the owner. The Co-op may, at any time after such amounts remain due and payable for thirty days, offset such amounts against retained patronage rebates, to the extent such amounts may exceed accumulated payments for shares. Such offset may not be executed by the owner or by anyone acting in the right of the owner.

Section 9.7 Redemption.

9.7.1 Retained patronage rebates may be redeemed generally when determined by the BOD to be no longer needed for capital purposes of the Co-op. At that time they shall be redeemed only in the order of the oldest outstanding amounts, and only on a ratable basis among amounts for each fiscal year.

9.7.2 Retained patronage rebates of particular owners may also be redeemed upon the death of the owner, or, at the discretion of the BOD, under other compelling circumstances.

9.7.3 Retained patronage rebates shall be redeemed at their carrying value on the books of the Co-op, or their net tangible book value, whichever is lesser.

Section 9.8 Allocation and Notice Of Net Loss.

9.8.1 In the event the Co-op shall incur a net loss in any fiscal year, such loss may be charged against retained earnings or other unallocated owners' equity. If the net loss exceeds such amounts, or in any event if the BOD so determines, the amount of such loss may either:

- (i) be carried forward to offset adjusted net income of subsequent fiscal years, or
- (ii) allocated to owners in the same manner as utilized in Section 9.2 for allocating adjusted net income, except that such allocation shall not exceed the total of invested capital.

9.8.2 Any net loss allocated to owners:

- (i) shall be charged first against retained patronage rebates of prior fiscal years, and
- (ii) shall then be charged against patronage rebate allocations of subsequent fiscal years.

Allocated net losses which are not so offset, may be charged against the carrying value of shares only upon termination of ownership. Allocated net losses shall not otherwise be assessed to or collected from owners, except as approved by a 3/4ths affirmative vote of those voting at a meeting of owners, a quorum being satisfied.

9.8.3 Written notice of incurred net loss, and of any allocated net loss, shall be delivered to owners within 8 months and 15 days following the close of the fiscal year.

Article X: Dissolution
